SCAMP October 2-4, 2017

Senior Camp 50 and older

Camp Quaker Haven Arkansas City, Kansas

Speaker: Frank Penna Vice President of International Relations World Renewal

Theme:

"Lord, give me . . . a MOUNTAIN???"

Music Leader: Charlie Mullen Keyboard: Joyce Newby

SPEAKER Frank Penna

Frank was born and raised in Denver, CO. After graduating from North High School, he attended Friends Bible College (Barclay College) in Haviland, Kansas. There he met and went on to marry, Janet Smith from League City, Texas.

Right out of college, Frank worked in construction for Ron Kendall and served as music minister at Haviland Friends Church. The next part-time ministry assignment was at Northwest Friends (Arvada, CO), working with Pastor Tom Bousman in ministry and business by managing a women's shoe store ("Goody Two Shoes"). Frank soon began to feel a call into fulltime pastoral ministry, which led the Pennas to Alva Friends Church (Oklahoma) in 1982.

After 3 years in Alva, the family moved back to Denver, where they served again at Northwest Friends, while Frank worked as a roofer and Janet at Little Friends Preschool.

In 1988, after several pastoral interviews and wondering if being fulltime pastors would ever be in their futures again, a new church plant started by Norman Bridges in Wichita (Linwood Park Friends), called them as pastors. Linwood eventually became Shepherd Friends Church.

In 2000, the Pennas moved to Texas, where Frank served one year at Bayshore Friends in music ministry and pastoral care. Wichita has been home since 2001. Frank worked as a trim carpenter and Janet in the mortgage business for several years, but in 2005, Frank answered Gary Wright's request to join the World Renewal International staff. Since that time, he has worked in international relations, serving in a variety of ways with ministry partners in Brazil, Haiti, Mexico, Africa, India and France.

Frank and Janet have 4 children, Joy (and Chris) Bergquist, Jesse (and Abby) Penna, Jacob (and Jill) Penna and Julie (and Mark) Healton. 9 grandchildren make their family fun and complete.
