SCAMP October 3-5, 2016

Senior Camp
50 and older

Camp Quaker Haven
Arkansas City, Kansas

Theme:
Is Retirement A Requirement

Speaker:
Steve Patterson
Senior Pastor, Booker Friends

Music Leader: Charlie Mullen
Keyboard: Joyce Newby

SPEAKER
Steve Patterson

Steve was born and raised in Denver, CO, graduated from Denver South High School, attended Baptist Bible College, Springfield, MO for three years (and had so much fun they asked him to have fun elsewhere) and graduated from Metropolitan State University, Denver, with a BS in Aviation Management. He was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant upon graduation from the University of Denver's U.S. Air Force ROTC program and earned his pilot's license. He took flight training at Laughlin Air Force Base in Del Rio, TX and flew jets. He calls his career in the Air Force "Lackluster" as he was enlisted during the Cold War.

Following the Air Force, he served on the ministry staff of 3 different Baptist Churches in Colorado, Texas, and Illinois, taught high school history, worked in the oilfield, then in corporate oil sales and training. He was transferred to Rock Springs, Wyoming in 2009 and attended the Evangelical Free Church where Rich Carlson served as pastor. Although he had attended church every time the doors were open during his childhood and teen years, he strayed, and today admits to running for many years from God's call to ministry. It was while he was in Rock Springs that he totally surrendered his life to God and to ministry. He served as pastor for one year at Wellsford (KS) Community Church, three years at Alba (MO) Friends Church, and is in his second year at Booker (TX) Friends Church. He (finally!) married Linda (Lawrence) Snyder-Patterson on August 26, 2013, in Branson, MO.
